

AddedException Athletic Programs

AddedException helps national and international athletes in Asia to be successfully placed into top-tier universities in USA, with the aspiration of playing on the university sports team. The sports that USA universities mainly recruit for are: squash, golf, tennis, soccer, swimming, track and field, gymnastics, rugby and basketball.

AddedException offers 6 programs for student-athletes of various athletic abilities:

1. AddedException Screening
2. AddedException TIP
3. AddedException Mentoring
4. AddedException **+
5. AddedException Premium
6. AddedException Platinum

AddedException Screening

The AddedException screening program is a complimentary offering that one of our mentors will provide your family to determine your child's current academic and athletic level as compared to the required level in collegiate athletics. The discussion will progress to evaluating the next, best steps possible.

AddedException Talent Identification Program (TIP)

A curated action plan designed for all athletes looking to improve their athletic training, have a structured college recruitment process and ensure they are academically competitive for college admission.

An AddedException mentor will schedule a time to meet with you and your family to discuss your plan and following the meeting, they will create a roadmap that details everything that must be done to prepare for an undergraduate education as a student-athlete at a US university.

This customized action plan will set each athlete on the right track towards receiving an athletic scholarship, some form of financial scholarship and a successful admission into the college of your choice. Planning is everything but execution beats all. Your child can receive guidance from a mentor who has had first-hand experience of playing a collegiate sport and has deduced the right plan for YOU to be successful as a student-athlete in college.

AddedException TIP is a standalone program for athletes of any age. All other AddedException programs have the TIP in-built as a starting point to our engagement.

Please note:

- 1. Athletic recruitment is a very different form of admissions process, it is highly selective but a much more determined route of admission. If AddedSport has successfully screened your profile, you will embark on a journey that doesn't compare in any price or form to other types of counseling services.
- 2. Please not that AddedSport has a 100% track record for athletic placement with a minimum of 30% scholarship offered to each previous client.
- 3. Experienced professionals who have played university sports in USA, and have a strong understanding of the athletic recruitment process deliver all programs.
- 4. Terms and conditions to be finalized on a separate document once decision has been made
- 5. As required by NCAA Bylaws, AddedSport does not directly market a prospective student-athlete's athletic ability or reputation, negotiate or promise scholarships or serve as an agent in any way.
